

COLLEGIATE NETWORK JOURNALISM
INTERNSHIPS AND FELLOWSHIPS 2010-11

SINCE 1979, THE COLLEGIATE NETWORK has assisted students at independent, right-of-center publications on campuses nationwide. We place exceptional student journalists in paid summer internships and postgraduate, yearlong fellowships at a variety of media venues, including:

- USA Today • St. Louis Post-Dispatch • Roll Call • The Hill
San Diego Union-Tribune • Washington Times • New York Post
Dallas Morning News • News & Observer (Raleigh)
Weekly Standard • National Review • American Spectator
Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (Prague)

ALUMNI OF THE CN'S FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM INCLUDE: Naomi Schafer Riley, Deputy Taste Editor, Wall Street Journal; Jonathan Karl, National Security Correspondent, ABC News; Matthew Continetti, Associate Editor, The Weekly Standard; Katherine Mangu-Ward, Associate Editor, Reason magazine; and many more ...

INSTRUCTIONS: Send the completed form below, along with a cover letter detailing your interest and experience in journalism, five reporting clips, an official university transcript, two letters of recommendation, and resumé to:

Amanda Yasenchak, Director
Collegiate Network
3901 Centerville Road
Wilmington, DE 19807-0431

DEADLINE: December 1, 2009. Letters of recommendation should be on official letterhead, unless they are emailed directly to the CN from the recommender. All reporting clips should be clearly labeled with the name and date of publication. Print web clips directly from their sources. For print clips, photocopies of the original article are preferred. Clips that are not clearly labeled will not be considered. Successful applicants, having been interviewed by the CN, shall be notified of acceptance by April 2009.

DIRECT ANY INQUIRIES to Amanda Yasenchak via email (cninternships@isi.org) or phone (302-652-4600). We do not accept explicit requests for specific internship or fellowship venues until the latter stages of the application process. Electronic application submissions are welcome; please include the information requested below in your email message.
